

IMPIOUS

Definition of IMPIOUS – Merriam-Webster

: not pious : lacking in reverence or proper respect

This could become a household word, if it is not already. Why? It appears our glorious leaders do not believe they need to “drain the swamp” anymore?

It is funny, actually hysterical to imagine American people trust members of Congress and the such, when all these lazy arrogant arseholes have done for years is kick a can until it makes news or headlines to possibly place a little fear in your mind. This suckers you into encouraging them into doing something they had already planned to do. They just need your approval. Feel silly?

CNN ran an article about the “OCE”.<sup>1</sup> Know what it is? It’s called the Office of Congressional Ethics<sup>2</sup>. Did you even remember it was created in 2008? Why? Because these scoundrels in Washington used such a scheme to get you to believe they were going to clean up Washington. It is tagged as;

Investigate Congress? What happened? It was meant to clean up the scandals and corruption in Washington? Has it worked? Don’t look like it. They do what they want.

Is it possible this watchdog group is actually honing in on the culprits? After all, according to the CNN article, Congress is trying to kill this group now? Why? So Congress can carry on with its free-for-all way of doing business? It appears to me that this clear admission of dismantling the OCE will give these arseholes their ability to “carry-on” with the immoral, unethical acts against the people of this country? Do these arseholes believe they are above the law?

Do these “persons” believe they can replace those in positions in the OCE with “people on their side” type of persons? Wasn’t that what they did to Brooksley Born? Replaced her with banking members or associates so the word “Derivatives” would not be noticed as a bad thing?

Maybe these idiots should realize there is a greater power in place than them. And they will not overcome that power.

It is time for “We the People...” to get our act together. Or we are on our own. Understand what is happening to you. Get off the couch.

Do something before your children lose out completely.

You love them don’t you? Show it.
